100-Word Rant

Write 100 words – no more, no less – on something you want the world to know. The graph below has 100 slots for you use for an accurate count.
Feel free to erase, move words around, and just generally make a mess of it until you're done.
Copy your 100-Word rant onto a clean sheet of paper (or type it up on the laptop or typewriter) and put it up on the wall.
Don't forget to give it a title! (Title words don't count.)
