

A Bug's Nap

words & pictures by Dale Lyles

I'm sleepy. It's time for my nap.

Hm. That sounds cozy, but...

Dear reader, sleep tight, as snug as a bug in a rug!!

...I'll keep looking

Under a leaf is nice, but what if a deer gets hungry and eats
it? That would wake me up!

Maybe up here...

That nest would be warm, but those baby birds are too noisy,

It's quieter over here, but that owl might sit on me!

Hi, ants! I'm looking for a place to nap.

Hi, Bug!

You can nap with us!

Bye, Bug!

Thanks, ants, but I'd get lost in all those tunnels.

Bye, Ants!

Hi, Bug!

Uh oh.

What are you doing?

Looking for a place to nap.

Great! Come up here and I'll find you a place to nap.

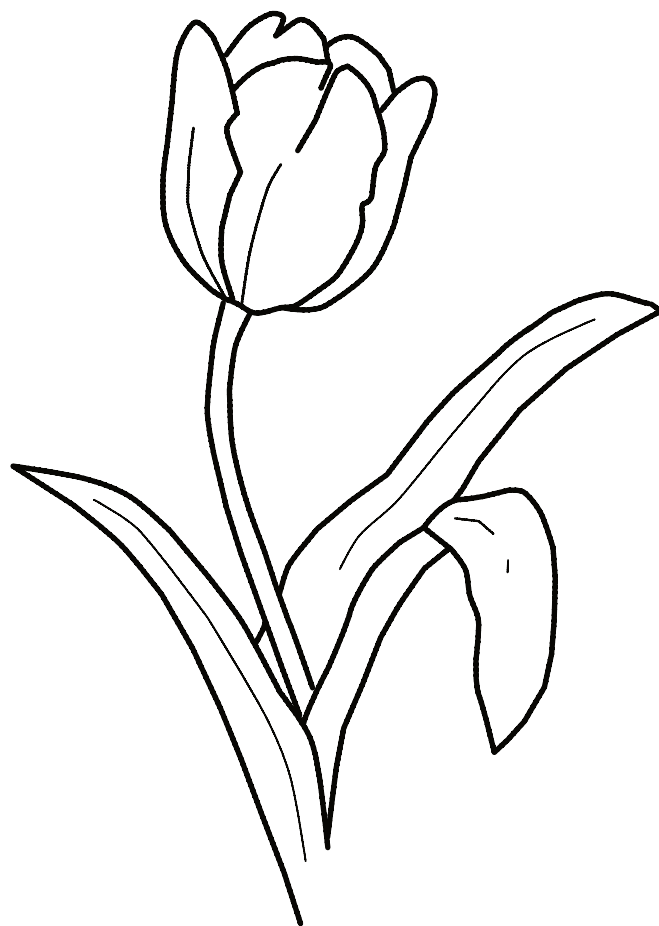

No, thank you...

I'm scared of him!

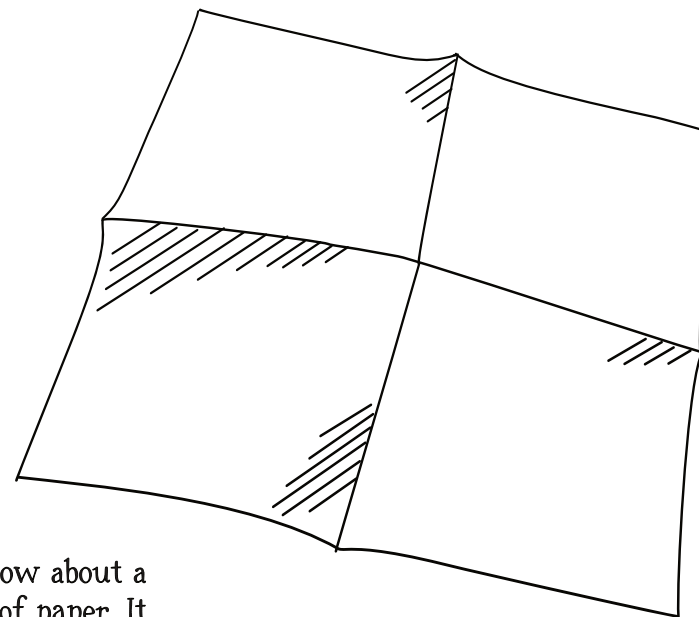

A flower would smell nice...

...but what if it rains?
I'd have to swim!

I don't know about a piece of paper. It might blow away.

I have a lot of choices!

I can't decide where to nap.
Which one should I pick?

BACKSTREET

COMMUNITY ARTS

Backstreet Community Arts exists to provide a safe, welcoming, creative environment to anyone who may benefit from the healing power of art and community.

Backstreet Arts reaches out to adults who may not be aware of or have access to the proven healing power of art: those who have experienced trauma, illness, or grief; veterans; homeless and limited-income individuals who cannot afford art classes, and anyone who wants to practice art in a comfortable, non-intimidating, inclusive atmosphere.

Backstreet is a 501(c)3 nonprofit. We believe that Art Saves Lives...because it saved ours.
