

9. That You

from "A Christmas Carol"

Dale Lyles

Andantino

That you — that I loved once is gone, gone long a - go. That you, I did-n't have to 6 call, you were al-ways there, you cared. That you, that boy I knew loved me, far more than 12 you. You used to be so ten - der, so sim - ple, so pure. — That 17 you — would have shared life with me, our whole life through. That you — thought my 21 laugh was more than sil - ver. That you — used to smile on more, on more — than 26 gold. But now you love some-thing more than my love, And so I re-lease my 32 hold on you.
