

2. Blake's Wonderful Car Delivers Us Wonderfully Well

—Nancy Willard

soloists, SATB with Piano

Dale Lyles

Solo

1

CHORUS:

The

Piano

Solo

3

dri - ver bowed and took my things. He wore a mack - in - tosh and wings. He wore a mack - in - tosh and boots the Pno.

Solo

6

tend - der green of on - ion shoots, and on his cap, in dap - pled green, was "Blake's Cel - est - ial Lim - ou - sine." -

Pno.

Solo

9

DRIVER:

My suit - cas - es be - gan to purr. "Your lug - gage is ex - cess - ive, sir. All

Pno.

12 CHORUS:

Solo

lug - gage must be car - ried flat and worn dis - creet - ly on your hat or served with mus - tard on a bun." A -

Pno.

15

Solo

larmed, I said I had - n't one. My suit - cas - es, my fond - est hopes grew

Pno.

18 DRIVER:

Solo

small and pale as en - vel - opes. "Now all a - board and all at ease. I on - ly car - ry whom I please." -

Pno.

21 CHORUS: rit.

Solo Un - eas - i - ly I stepped in - side and

A. rit.
Un - eas - i - ly I stepped in - side and

T. rit.
Un - eas - i - ly I stepped in - side and

B. rit.
Un - eas - i - ly I stepped in - side and

Pno. rit.

23 Andante

Solo found the seats so green and wide, the grass so soft, the view so far, it scarce - ly could be called a car,

A. Andante
found the seats so green and wide, the grass so soft, the view so far, it scarce - ly could be called a car,

T. Andante
found the seats so green and wide, the grass so soft, the view so far, it scarce - ly could be called a car,

B. Andante
found the seats so green and wide, the grass so soft, the view so far, it scarce - ly could be called a car,

Pno. Andante

26

Solo

A.

T.

B.

Pno.

rath-er a wish that on - ly flew when I climbed in, when I climbed in, when I climbed

rath-er a wish that on - ly flew when I climbed in, when I climbed in, when I climbed

rath-er a wish that on - ly flew when I climbed in, when I climbed in, when I climbed

rath-er a wish that on - ly flew when I climbed in, when I climbed in, when I climbed

30

Solo

A.

T.

B.

Pno.

in and found it true.

in and found it true.

in and found it true.

in and found it true.